CSS Seminars

The following is a list of CSS and CSS 3 seminars that can be presented at your user group or other live event by Paul D. Sheriff.

An Easy Guide to Learning CSS

Want to make your HTML look great, be more efficient and easer to maintain? Cascading Styles Sheets (CSS) are the answer. This seminar serves as an introduction to CSS for programmer's that have had little or no experience with CSS. You will learn the best practices for working with CSS in your HTML applications.

Learning Objectives

How to get started with CSS

Getting the most out of CSS

Best practices for using CSS

Exploring the Features of CSS 3

CSS 3 adds many new features that used to be only possible with JavaScript. New layout methods help you wish responsive design. New functions make creating dynamic HTML quick and easy. Media queries are a powerful way to modify your HTML based on device size. New pseudo classes and filters provide powerful ways to create compelling designs.

Learning Objectives

What's new in CSS 3

What has been deprecated

New layout features

Rounded corners, drop shadows and gradients